Thank you

Thank you to all those involved in preparing for and running yesterday's Art Show and Variety Show. We are grateful for all your hard work and for the money that was raised to support the important ministry of the Parkdale Activity & Recreation Centre (PARC),

Better Sight & Sound

Large print copies of the bulletin and hymn book are available from the sidespeople, as are ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing capability.

Feast of Dedication

Next Sunday we will be celebrating the Fourth Sunday of Easter and St. Martin's Feast of Dedication. As part of our celebration, we will be welcoming a former parishioner and now the Assistant Curate at Christ Church, Stouffville, Fr. Don Beyers, as our Preacher at both services.

Saturday Service & Supper

The next Saturday Service & Supper will be Saturday, May 13th at 5:30 p.m. Come and share in this more informal service of prayer, readings and song followed by a wonderful dinner together. All are welcome.

Forward Day by Day

Copies of Forward Day by Day, a daily guide for Prayer and Scripture Reading, for May-July are available at the back of the church. Please put an extra loonie on the collection plate to cover the cost of each copy.

Baseball Game

St. Martin's parishioners will be playing a friendly baseball game against St. Mary Magdalene's on Sunday, June 4th following the 11 a.m. service. All ages are welcome to join our team as players or in the cheering section. More details to come. Please speak to Grace Karram Stephenson to join the team.

Trip to see the Old Bells of York

Mark your calendars for the parish's trip on Wednesday, May 10th to see the amazing ring of bells and the bell-ringers at work at St. James' Cathedral. A registration form with more information is available at the back of the church. Please give your completed form to Jonathan Gentry.

Pastoral Emergency

Fr. Philip will be away for part of this coming week attending the annual meeting of Superiors of Anglican Religious Communities in North America. In case of a pastoral emergency while he is away from the church, please contact one of the churchwardens, Cindy Paget or Michael Attwood, who will ensure pastoral support is provided.

recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Luke 24:13-35

Prayer over the Gifts

Creator of all, you wash away our sins in water, you give us new birth by the Spirit, and redeem us in the blood of Christ. As we celebrate the resurrection, renew your gift of life within us. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Author of life divine, in the breaking of bread we know the risen Lord. Feed us always in these mysteries, that we may show your glory to all the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Announcements

Confirmation

The Diocesan Confirmation service will take place this afternoon at 4:30 p.m. at St. James' Cathedral. Come and celebrate with those from St. Martin's and other parishes in the diocese who will be confirmed at this special service. All are welcome.

Student Farewell

Today is the last Sunday at St. Martin's for Martha Riddell who has spent the winter and spring months with us as part of her first year training in the Master of Divinity programme at Trinity College. We thank Martha for her contribution to the life of our parish and wish her well in her continued studies and training.

Your ideas are needed

Next Sunday at 1:00 p.m. you are invited to come along to the Guild Room to share your ideas about ways to welcome newcomers more effectively to our parish, and to help them become continuing members of our parish community. All are welcome. For further information, please speak to Dianne Doughty.

Tuesday Morning in the Garden

The Garden Group will be working in the Church garden every Tuesday morning from 10:00-12:00 during May and June and could use your help with planting, weeding and mulching. No experience required. Tools provided. Speak to Ingrid Whitaker or Patty McKnight for more information.

The flowers at the altar are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Zofia Wratna Kolberg from Mark, Helen and family.

*The flowers at the Madonna are given in loving memory of Jean Fletcher on the anniversary of her 100th birthday
by her daughter, Jane Rozdzilski, and family.*

The Collect

O God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread. Open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in his redeeming work, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Acts

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, "Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified." Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Acts 2:14a,36-41

Psalm 116.1-3, 10-17

A Reading from the First Letter of Peter
If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God. Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God. 1 Peter 1:17-23

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, “What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?” They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?” He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.” Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?” Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.” So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they
