11:00 A.M. PROCESSION AND SOLEMN EUCHARIST

Celebrant: Fr. Philip

The Liturgy of the Palms

In this liturgy we become part of the crowds who welcomed Jesus as he entered the gates of Jerusalem. We begin our service in a different place so that together we might be part of the procession that enters the Holy City with Jesus.

(As the clergy enter the rear of the church, please stand and turn towards them for the Liturgy of the Palms.)

The Greeting & Prayer, page 297 (Green Book)

The Gospel of the Palms - Matthew 21.1-11

The Blessing of the Palms

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right to praise younow and for ever.

People: Amen.

The Distribution of Palms

Motet at the Distribution: Ingrediente Domino George Malcolm

The Procession

You are invited to join the end of the procession as it moves past your pew. Please take this bulletin with you so that you can sing the hymns. The children will leave the procession for Sunday School part way through the procession. Please return to your pew as the procession moves up the centre aisle a second time.

Priest: Let us go forth in peace.

People: In the name of Christ. Amen.

Processional Hymn

Refrain: All glory, laud, and honour to thee, Redeemer, King,
To whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

Thou art the King of Israel, thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest, the King and blessed one. Refrain.

The company of angels are praising thee on high,
And we with all creation in chorus make reply. Refrain.

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
Our praise and prayer and anthems before thee we present. Refrain.

To thee before thy Passion they sang their hymns of praise;
To thee now high exalted our melody we raise. Refrain.

Thou didst accept their praises; accept the prayers we bring, welcome. Donations of wine and beer would be much appreciated. If you can help in the kitchen or with clean-up, please speak to Cindy Paget.
Who in all good delightest, thou good and gracious King. Refrain.

St. Martin's Art Fair and Variety Show

The Outreach Committee to support the ministry of the Parkdale Activity & Recreation Centre (PARC) on Queen Street East will be hosting a special St. Martin's Arts for PARC and Variety Show on Saturday, April 29. Come and see the works of many local artists from 12—6 p.m. There will be desserts and refreshments and children's programming. A variety show featuring many of our talented St. Martin's parishioners will begin at 6:30 p.m. Buy your tickets today and enjoy a reduced pre-event price. Volunteers are also needed to help at this event. Please speak to Almut Brenne-Davies.

FaithWorks Campaign

Please help us achieve our 2017 FaithWorks goal by returning your FaithWorks cheque (made out to the parish, memo "FaithWorks") on the offering plate or mail it to the office. The parish's FaithWorks Walkathon is planned for Sunday afternoon, June 25 on the Toronto Islands.

Remembering—from the parish's Heritage & Archives Committee

Today, April 9th, marks the 100th anniversary of the beginning of the battle of Vimy Ridge, fought and won by Canadians with many casualties. One such fallen soldier was Private George William Moffatt, who is remembered in the first window on the right in the chancel of St. Martin's. Ian Greene's uncle Harry fought at Vimy and died of the wounds received there. Ian's father, Charles, was more fortunate; he survived the battle of Vimy and returned home to Canada after the end of the war. Other parishioners may have similar family connections to this battle fought 100 years ago.

Bishop's Company Dinner

The dinner takes place on Thursday, May 18 at 6 p.m. at the downtown Marriott Hotel. Tickets are $175 each of which about $75 is tax receiptable. Michael Coren, a St. Martin's parishioner, will be the speaker. If you are interested in joining the St. Martin's table, please speak to Mary Conliffe.

Parish Theatre Trip

The parish's annual theatre trip to the Stratford Festival will take place on Saturday, June 10. We will be going for lunch and the matinee performance of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. Tickets will be $88 (including tax). Rides can be arranged. Please speak to Cindy Paget today if you are interested.

Better Sound and Sight

Large print editions of the leaflet and hymn book are available from the sidespeople as are ear pieces that connect to the sound system.

Anglicanism Rediscovered

We will take a break this Wednesday for Holy Week. The series resumes on the Wednesday after Easter. All are welcome.

Concert at St. Martin's

The Healey Willan Singers present Heart's Desire, the choir's 10th anniversary concert, featuring works by Brahms, Mendelssohn, Walton and others on April 22 at 8 pm. Tickets ($20 adult, $15 senior/student) available at the door. 7

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:5-11

Prayer over the Gifts

God our help and strength, you have satisfied our hunger with this eucharistic food. Strengthen our faith, that through the death and resurrection of your Son, we may be led to salvation for he is Lord now and for ever. Amen.

Announcements

Easter Flowers

Today is the last day to contribute to the Easter Flowers using the envelopes available at the rear of the church. Please print the name(s) of those you wish remembered on the envelope.

Visit of Bishop Andison

We look forward to the visit of Bishop Jenny Andison who will be our Celebrant and Preacher at the Easter Vigil service this coming Saturday.

Washing of Feet

At the Maundy Thursday evening Eucharist we follow our Lord's example as he washed the disciples' feet at the Last Supper. If you would be willing to have a foot washed during the service, please speak to Fr. Philip.

Easter Vigil

If you are coming to the Easter Vigil, please bring along a bell to ring during the singing of the Gloria to celebrate our Lord's Resurrection.

Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at 7:30 p.m. This is a short service, about 30 minutes in length, in which we walk with Jesus along the road to Calvary. As we process around the church from station to station there are short readings from scripture, and prayers related to each incident along Christ's path. Many people find this a wonderful service for quiet and reflection that helps them to identify more closely with Christ's journey to the Cross for us.

Resurrection Party

St. Martin's annual Resurrection Party will be celebrated this Saturday, April 15th in the Parish Hall immediately following the 8:30 p.m. Easter Vigil.

This is a time when we welcome many people to St. Martin's. We are looking for donations of food, particularly savoury finger foods (items that are easy to serve and require minimal preparation). Desserts are also

Everyone in the procession stops for the singing of the Station Prayer.

Priest: They gave me gall to eat.

People: And when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Priest: A Collect for the Sunday of the Passion

Entry Hymn

The royal banners forward go; the cross shines forth in mystic glow, where he, the Life, did death endure, and by that death did life procure.

There while he hung, his sacred side by soldier's spear was opened wide to cleanse us in the precious flood of water mingled with his blood.

Fulfilled is all his words foretold; then spread the banners, and unfold love's crowning power, that all may see he reigns and triumphs from the tree.

O tree of grace, the conquering sign, which dost in royal purple shine, gone is thy shame; for, lo, each bough proclaims the prince of glory now.

For once thy favoured branches bore the wealth that did the world restore, the priceless treasure, freely spent to pay for our enfranchisement.

Father of all, life's source and spring, may every soul thy praises sing;
may those obey the rule of heaven, for whom the perfect life was given.

The Liturgy of the Palms

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. If anyone says anything to you, just say this, 'The Lord needs them.' And he will send them immediately." This took place to fulfil what had been spoken through the prophet, saying, "Tell the daughter of Zion, Look, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey." The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them. A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!" When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, "Who is this?" The crowds were saying, "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee."

Matthew 21:1-11

The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everliving God, in tender love for all our human race you sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take our flesh and suffer death upon a cruel cross. May we follow the example of his great humility, and share in the glory of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Isaiah 50:4-9a

Psalm 31:9-16
