Michael Attwood (19 Riverside Trail) on Saturday, June 17th from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Fr. Ajit John will be the leader for the day. Space is limited to 20 participants. The suggested donation is $10. For further information, please speak to Margaret Douglin.

Donations to St. Martin's

We are grateful to all those who financially support the life of our parish. You are reminded to please keep up your donations on a regular basis so that we can continue to offer a strong and vibrant ministry at St. Martin's.

Community Outreach

St. Martin's is a welcoming, friendly parish – we all know this. To reinforce this fact – and to celebrate the onset of summer – we are having a Family Fun Day on Saturday, June 24 from 10:00 – 2:00. Mark your calendars and plan to come and meet some of our community neighbours. Awaken your inner child and prepare to have fun! There will be activities for adults and children and refreshments as well. There is no charge for this event. One request – please bake some cupcakes and bring them to the church on the Saturday morning. Please let Kathie Wagg know either in person or by email at waggfamily@bell.net that you will be bringing cupcakes. Thank you!

FaithWorks Walkathon

Mark your calendars now for the St. Martin's annual FaithWorks Walkathon on the afternoon of Sunday, June 25. This is a great outing for parishioners of all ages. Sponsor sheets will be available soon.

Better Sight & Sound

Large print copies of the bulletin and hymn book are available from the sidespeople, as are ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing

Concert at St. Martin's

The Voices Chamber Choir presents a concert, From Far & Wide, at St. Martin's next Saturday, June 10 at 8 p.m. The concert features works by Elgar, Lauridsen, Stanford and a number of Canadian composers in celebration of Canada's 150th. Tickets ($20 adult, $15 senior/student) will be available at the door.

Come and play Pickleball

Why not come out on Thursdays to enjoy an afternoon of Pickleball in the Parish Hall from 12:30—3:00 p.m.? No experience is necessary.

Fr. Philip

Fr. Philip will be at the Abbey of St. Benoit du Lac attending the annual Retreat & Chapter of his religious community, the Oratory of the Good Shepherd, for part of this coming week. In case of a pastoral emergency, please contact one of the churchwardens, Michael Attwood or Cindy Paget, who will arrange for pastoral care.

Prayer over the Gifts

Giver of life, receive all we offer you this day. Let the Spirit you bestow on your Church continue to work in the world through the hearts of all who believe. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Father, may we who have received this eucharist live in the unity of your Holy Spirit, that we may show forth his gifts to all the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Announcements

Baseball Game

Today following the 11 a.m. service is the St. Martin's kids' church all-ages baseball game against St. Mary Magdalene's. Players and their supporters are invited to join us in the Sunday School Room for a light lunch before walking over to Lithuania Park Baseball Diamond (west side of Keele Street). A t-ball game will be run alongside the main game for children under 8. All are invited to bring a lawn chair or blanket and watch the game!

Parish Newsletter

The next edition of the parish newsletter, The Lychgate, is now being prepared. If you have any news or items that you would like to see included in the newsletter, please e-mail the material to the editors, Eilonwy Morgan & Ian Greene at iangreene0766@rogers.com by next Sunday, June 11th.

The Collect

Almighty and everliving God, who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation the way of life eternal, keep us in the unity of your Spirit, that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Acts

When the day of Pentecost had come, the apostles were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Acts 2:1-21

Psalm 104.25-35, 37

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”
