Collection. Your non-perishable food donations and the food items purchased with your $515 in financial donations are a tremendous help as St. Bartholomew's, Regent Park opens its Food Bank for the fall season.

Parish Newsletter

The fall edition of the parish newsletter, The Lychgate, is now in preparation. If you have news or items to contribute, please send them along to the newsletter editors Ian Greene & Eilonwy Morgan at iangreene0766@rogers.com by next Sunday, September 17th.

Congratulations

We congratulate our Associate Priest, the Rev'd Canon Susan Bell, who, as of September 1st, has concluded her ministry at Havergal College and has become the full-time Canon Missioner for the Diocese of Toronto.

Better Sight & Sound

Large print copies of the bulletin and hymn book are available from the sidespeople, as are ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing.

Invitation from Holy Cross

The Holy Cross brothers invite you to join with them in celebrating their patronal festival, the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, next Saturday, September 16 at 11 a.m. at St. John's Anglican Church (near Humberside & High Park). A light reception will follow the service.

Pickleball

The first session of Pickleball for the new season will take place in the Parish Hall on Thursday, September 21st at 12:30 p.m. All are welcome.

New Ministry

As announced in August, Fr. Andrew will be taking up a new ministry on October 1st as Priest-in-Charge of the parish of St. Luke's, Dixie in Mississauga. Fr. Andrew & Martha's final Sunday at St. Martin's will be Sunday, September 24.

Prayer Cycles

This is a reminder that we pray for those with immediate needs on the Short Term Prayer list at the Sunday services, while those with longer term needs are remembered on the Long Term Prayer list which we use at the celebration of the Eucharist on Tuesday mornings. Please let Fr. Philip know if you would like a name added to either list.

Summer Preserves

As more summer fresh fruits become available, please keep in mind our annual Nutcracker Fair in November when making your jams, jellies, and preserves. The jars of jams and preserves are always popular. We can sell many more jars if we have the stock, so please help us out this year with your special home made recipes.

Prayer over the Gifts

Great and holy God, accept our offering of labour and love. May we bring you true and spiritual worship and be one with you. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Father, your word and sacrament give us food and life. May we who have shared in holy things bear fruit to your honour and glory, in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Announcements

September Parish Dinner

This afternoon starting at 5:30 p.m. we will be holding our annual parish dinner in the church garden. This is a wonderful occasion to invite friends and neighbours to share in the supper and make a connection to our parish family. The main course will be provided. Please bring a salad or dessert to share with others, and a beverage for yourself. The evening concludes with an outdoor service of Compline.

Kids' Church Start-up

Our Kids' Church program begins today during the 11 a.m. service. Children from 0 to 13 are welcome to join us starting at 10 a.m. for playtime, followed at 11 a.m. for nursery, primary and junior classes and 12:00 p.m. for the Eucharist upstairs. If your children prefer to remain in the service, please help yourself to resources from the striped boxes at the back of the church or ask Grace Karram Stephenson for more information.

Pray for School

Families are invited to join us at the compline service that follows the parish dinner today as we pray for our children and youth who are returning to school.

Fall Gardening

There is lot's to do in the garden as the season winds down through September and October. Please contact Patty McKnight at pattymcknight@sympatico.ca if you can spare an hour or two to help out.

Baseball at Last!

Next Sunday September 17th following the 11 a.m. service, parishioners of St. Martin's will play a friendly game of baseball against parishioners from St. Mary Magdalene's. Since our June game was rained out, we hope many will join us this time around to cheer or play! All ages welcome – equipment will be provided.

Summer Food Collection

Thank you to all those who contributed to our Lammas Summer Food

1. Praise my soul the king of heaven, to his feet your tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
evermore his praises sing;
alleluia, alleluia,
praise the everlasting King.
2. Praise him for his grace and favour to our forebears in distress;
praise him still the same for ever,
slow to chide and swift to bless:
alleluia, alleluia,
glorious in his faithfulness.
3. Father-like he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hands he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes:
alleluia, alleluia,
widely as his mercy flows.
4. Angels, help us to adore him,
you behold him face to face;
sun and moon bow down before him;
dwellers all in time and space,
alleluia, alleluia,
praise with us the God of grace.

The Collect

Stir up, O Lord, the wills of your faithful people, that richly bearing the fruit of good works, we may by you be richly rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Exodus

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbour in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the Lord. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgements: I am the Lord. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

Exodus 12:1-14

Psalm 149

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet”; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, “Love your neighbour as yourself.” Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law. Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armour of light; let us live honourably as in the day, not in revelling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarrelling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Romans 13:8-14

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Jesus said, “If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.”

Matthew 18:15-20

The flowers at the altar are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Deborah Wrong from friends and family.

The flowers at the Madonna are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Bud Laking on his 90th birthday and their 69th wedding anniversary from Shirley, and from Roberta and Robert.
