ordinator. We are grateful to Martha for creating and maintaining St. Martin's Facebook page. Anyone interested in volunteering for this role should speak to Cindy Paget. Martha advises that a social media co-ordinator should be active on Facebook as an individual and be comfortable with the basics of Facebook (creating photo albums and events, sharing links, posting updates).

Coats for Romero House

In the spirit of St. Martin who shared his cloak with someone in need one cold night, we are looking for good winter coats (for both adults and children) that will be donated to Romero House for their ministry with refugees. Boxes are available at the back of the church to receive your donations.

Fr. Philip

Fr. Philip will be leaving later this week to attend the annual meeting of the Anglican Orthodox International Theological Dialogue in Malta. In case of a pastoral emergency, please contact one of the wardens, Cindy Paget or Michael Attwood, who will arrange for pastoral care.

Trinity Book Sale

This amazing sale of books in all categories of fiction and non-fiction including theology, biblical studies, prayer, and spiritual takes place at Trinity College (5 Hoskin Avenue) from October 19-23. See the notices on the church bulletin boards for further details.

Nutcracker Fair

This year's fair on November 18th needs your help to be the successful community event and fundraiser we have come to count on. Your generous donations of jams, jellies and baking, festive wear/costume jewelry, "like new" items and Silent Auction donations would be very much appreciated. If you would like to volunteer for the fair, or have donation questions, please contact Helen Kolberg at helenkolberg@gmail.com or by calling (416) 588-4903.

Order of St. Martin

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received. 1 Peter 4:10

Our Patronal Festival on November 12th will mark the seventeenth year that we have recognized individual parishioners with the Order of St. Martin. As the citation states, this award celebrates and honours those members of our parish family through whose life, example, and personal ministry we see the light of Christ. Please take time to reflect on those people who have touched your life and the lives of others, and brought you closer to our Lord Jesus Christ. Nomination forms are available at the back of the church or on the church's web site. Nominations must be received by Sunday, October 29.

Announcements

Deanery Bus Tour

You are invited to take part next Saturday, October 14th in a bus tour of Parkdale West Toronto Deanery churches. This is a great opportunity to visit other parishes and to hear about their ministry. The cost is $10 (includes lunch), payable on the day. The tour begins at 9:00 a.m. at St. Olave's (Bloor & Windermere), then visits St. Chad's, and ends for lunch at St. John's West Toronto and Holy Cross Priory (Humberstone & High Park). Please speak to Fr. Philip to register for the tour.

Thank you

Thank you to all who helped with and attended the breakfast last Sunday. $194 was raised in support of the Pikangikum water project.

Bulbs for the Garden

Donations of bulbs for the church garden would be much appreciated. The squirrels and raccoons have taken a toll on the bulbs presently in the garden and so we need to replenish them. Please look for bulbs that say "year after year" or "naturalizing" on the package as they will continue to bloom for many years. Thank you.

Kids' Church

Our Kids' Church program continues today. Children up to 13 years of age are welcome to join us starting at 10 a.m. for playtime, followed at 11 a.m. for nursery, primary and junior classes and 12:00 p.m. for the Eucharist upstairs. If your children prefer to remain in the service, please help yourself to resources from the striped boxes at the back of the church or ask Grace Karram Stephenson for more information.

Fall Gardening

There is lots to do in the garden as the season winds down through September and October. Please contact Patty McKnight at pattymcknight@sympatico.ca if you can spare an hour or two to help out.

Better Sight & Sound

Large print copies of the bulletin and hymn book are available from the sidespeople, as are ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing.

Forward Day by Day

Copies of this guide to daily Scripture reading and prayer for November to January are available at the back of the church. Please put an extra loonie on the collection plate to cover the cost of each copy. Thank you.

Diocesan Outreach Conference

The annual diocesan outreach and advocacy conference will be held on Saturday, November 4th at St. John's, York Mills from 9:00-3:30 p.m. This year's theme is Being God's People: Embracing difference, building solidarity. The keynote speaker will be Dr. Carl James. The cost is $30 ($15 for students and the unemployed). Lunch and child care is provided.

The Collect

Creator of the fruitful earth, you made us stewards of all things. Give us grateful hearts for all your goodness, and steadfast wills to use your bounty well, that the whole human family, today and in generations to come, may with us give thanks for the riches of your creation. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. You shall eat your fill and bless the Lord your God for the good land that he has given you. Take care that you do not forget the Lord your God, by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today. When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks have multiplied, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock, and fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you, and in the end to do you good. Do not say to yourself, “My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.” But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors as he is doing today.

Deuteronomy 8:7-18

Psalm 65-9-14

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written, “He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.” He who supplies seed to the 4 sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others, while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

2 Corinthians 9:6-15

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

Luke 17:11-19

Prayer over the Gifts

Source of all life, the heaven and earth are yours, yet you have given us dominion over all things. Receive the symbols of our labour and love which we offer you this day, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

God of our hope, in this eucharist we find the source of all your blessings. Nourished in these holy mysteries may we, with our lives, give you continual thanks and praise. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
