Dinner to support the Church in the West Indies

The Rt. Rev. Calvert Friday, bishop of the Windward Islands, will be the keynote speaker at the Bishops Arthur Brown and Basil Tonks Dinner, an annual fundraiser that supports the work of the Church in the Province of the West Indies. The dinner will be held on Saturday, Nov. 4 at St. Andrew, Scarborough, 2333 Victoria Park Ave. The 4:30 p.m. Eucharist is followed by dinner at 6 p.m. For tickets, please speak to Frank Bodkin.

Coats for Romero House

In the spirit of St. Martin who shared his cloak with someone in need one cold night, we are looking for good winter coats (for adults and children) that will be donated to Romero House for their ministry with refugees. Boxes are available at the back of the church to receive your donations.

A message from our Children's Ministry Co-ordinator

Thank you so much to all those who have supported our kids' programs over the past months in so many ways. Most importantly, thank you for all the times you have smiled at one of our kids, told them you are glad they came to church and gave them a high-five, and for the times that you have welcomed a new family making them feel welcome and accepted at St. Martin's. As we move along in our fall program, we are looking for two more teachers to join our team, teaching a class once every 5 weeks. Please contact Grace at grace.karram@utoronto.ca if you could help.

Parish Newsletter

The Advent edition of the parish newsletter, The Lychgate, is now in preparation. If you have news or items to contribute, please send them to the newsletter editors Ian Greene & Eilonwy Morgan at iangreene0766@rogers.com by November 5th.

Diocesan Outreach and Advocacy Conference

This annual conference will be held next Saturday at St. John's, York Mills from 9:00-3:30 p.m. This year's theme is Being God's People: Embracing difference, building solidarity. speaker will The cost is $30 ($15 for students and the unemployed). Lunch and child care is provided.

Help needed for the Out of the Cold dinner

St. Martin's will be providing the Out of the Cold dinner on Sunday evening, Nov. 26th at St. Matthew's, Islington. Volunteers are needed: six people to help prepare the food at St. Martin's on Saturday morning, Nov. 25th, four people to help in the kitchen at St. Matthew's on the Sunday from 4:00pm to 7:00pm, one of whom needs to be able to lift a fully loaded dishwasher tray. Please speak to Judith Kidd after the 8:30 a.m. service or Glen Storey after the 11:00 am service or contact Judith at jvkidd@sympatico.ca or Glen at storeybook25@gmail.com for more information or to volunteer. 7

The Collect

Lord God our redeemer, who heard the cry of your people and sent your servant Moses to lead them out of slavery, free us from the tyranny of sin and death, and by the leading of your Spirit bring us to our promised land; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.” Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord's command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigour had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended. Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses. Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Deuteronomy 34:1–12 3

Psalm 90.1-6, 13-17

appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us. 1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.” Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: “What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.” He said to them, “How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet”’? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?” No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions. Matthew 22:34-46

Prayer over the Gifts

God of constant love, you have guided your people in all times and ages. May we who offer you our praise today always be ready to follow where you lead; we ask this in the name Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our

Prayer after Communion

God our guide, you have fed us with bread from heaven as you fed the people of Israel. May we who have been inwardly nourished be ready to follow you all our days; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
