Coats for Romero House

In the spirit of St. Martin who shared his cloak with someone in need one cold night, we are looking for good winter coats (for adults and children) that will be donated to Romero House for their ministry with refugees. Today is the last Sunday to receive your donations.

Better Sight & Sound

Large print copies of the bulletin and hymn book are available from the sidespeople, as are ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing.

Parish Newsletter

The Advent edition of the parish newsletter, The Lychgate, is now in preparation. If you have news or items to contribute, please send them today to the newsletter editors Ian Greene & Eilonwy Morgan at iangreene0766@rogers.com

Saturday Service & Supper

Come and join with us as we begin the season of Advent with the next Saturday Service and Supper to be held on Saturday, December 2 at 5:30 p.m. The service will focus on the great O Antiphons of Advent as in readings, song and prayer we begin our Advent journey together. The service is followed by a wonderful meal and time of fellowship. All are welcome.

Advent Quiet Day

Our Advent Quiet Day sponsored by St. Martin's, Holy Cross Priory, and St. John's, West Toronto will be held at St. Martin's on Saturday, December 9th from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Our speaker for the Day will be the Primate, Archbishop Fred Hiltz, whose theme will be Mary: Her Salvation, Her Song, Her Service. The cost is $10 which includes lunch. The registration form is included in this bulletin.

Advent Lessons & Carols

Mark your calendar now for the date of this year's Advent Lessons & Carols service on Sunday, December 10 at 7:30 p.m. followed by a reception in the Parish Hall.

A message from our Children's Ministry Co-ordinator

Thank you so much to all those who have supported our kids' programs over the past months. Most importantly, thank you for all the times you have smiled at one of our kids, told them you are glad they came to church, and for the times that you have made a new family feel welcome and accepted at St. Martin's. We are now looking for two more teachers to join our team, teaching a class once every 5 weeks. Please contact Grace at grace.karram@utoronto.ca if you could help.

New Social Media Co-Ordinator

Andrea Zinn has taken on the ministry of Social Media Co-ordinator which includes the parishes Facebook page. Her email address is azinn0821@gmail.com

Announcements

Welcome

We welcome as our Preacher today at the 11 a.m. service the Rt. Rev'd Stephen Andrews. Bishop Andrews, formerly the Bishop of Algoma, is presently the Principal of Wycliffe College.

Order of St. Martin

Please join us at the Coffee Hour today as we present the Order of St. Martin to this year's worthy recipients.

Concert at St. Martin's

Acquired Taste, a community choir for professional instrumentalists in Toronto, will present a concert at St. Martin's tonight at 7:30 entitled Songs of Remembrance featuring works centring on the theme of remembrance and reconciliation. Tickets ($20 general, $10 student) are available at the door. Proceeds to support Romero House.

Nutcracker Fair— Saturday, November 18, 10AM - 2PM

There is something for everyone at this Saturday's Nutcracker Fair. Please come out to support this important annual fundraiser. Vintage costume jewelry and festive wear for the Belle of the Ball boutique can be given to Ann, Allison, Maggie or Patricia. Please see Gail Renouf about Silent Auction items. Baked goods, freezer foods, baskets and items for the Fair can be dropped off from noon to 7pm on Friday, November 17th or before 9 a.m. the day of the Fair. Please see the flyer in this bulletin for more details. Contact Helen Kolberg at helenkolberg@gmail.com or by calling (416) 588-4903 if you have any further questions about how you can help or make your donation.

Stewardship and Commitment Sunday

St. Martin's Stewardship campaign is now in full swing. If you didn't pick up your Stewardship package by last weekend, it will have been mailed to you. Extra copies are also available at the back of the church. If you wish, you can submit your Pledge sheet and Time & Talent form online – it's confidential, fast and easy – go to www.stmartininthefields.ca and follow the link. You can also put your completed pledge form in the envelope provided and put it on the collection plate by Commitment Sunday, November 26th.

Help needed for the Out of the Cold dinner

St. Martin's will be providing the Out of the Cold dinner on Sunday evening, Nov. 26th at St. Matthew's, Islington. Volunteers are needed: six people to help prepare the food at St. Martin's on Saturday morning, Nov. 25th, four people to help in the kitchen at St. Matthew's on the Sunday from 4:00pm to 7:00pm, one of whom needs to be able to lift a fully loaded dishwasher tray. Please speak to Judith Kidd after the 8:30 a.m. service or Glen Storey after the 11:00 am service or contact Judith at jvkidd@sympatico.ca to volunteer.

Hymn for St. Martin

Ebenezer

1. Lord, we thank you for St. Martin, saint and soldier of the poor, in your name he clothed the homeless, and renounced the spoils of war.
Help us like the saint we honour, not to fear the world's disgrace:
in the scorned and disregarded, let us recognize your face.
2. He who served a worldly empire, fearless in the battle strife.
Found, in prayerful contemplation, ways to turn from death to life.
In his search for truth and justice, still the kingdom is revealed.
Coming where the poor are valued, growing where the sick are healed.
3. How we clothe ourselves in virtue, wealth and pow'r in every stitch!
Tear the robe and clothe the naked, then in rags shall we be rich.
Come, O Christ, to stand before us, clothed in glorious poverty, saying to each faithful servant, "This, my friend, you did for me."

Dismissal

Please join us for refreshments downstairs following the service.

THE READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost PROPER 33

Judges 4:1-7; Psalm 123;

1 Thessalonians 5:1-11; Matthew 25: 15-30

The Collect

Lord God of hosts, you clothed your servant Martin with the spirit of sacrifice, and set him in the midst of your Church as a guide in the path of holiness. Give us grace to follow the light of his example, that we may be clothed with your righteousness in the dwellings of peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

Isaiah 58:6-9 3

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness. Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Romans 12:3-13

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

The king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.'

Matthew 25:34-40

*The flowers at the altar are given to the glory of God
by David Derry and his family in loving memory of his grandmother, Elsinor Wegenast DeRoche.*

The flowers at the Madonna are given to the glory of God in thanksgiving for the ministries of Fr. Andrew and Martha at St. Martin's.

Prayer over the Gifts

God of constant love, you have guided your people in all times and ages. May we who offer you our praise today always be ready to follow where you lead; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

God our guide, you have fed us with bread from heaven as you fed the people of Israel. May we who have been inwardly nourished be ready to follow you all our days; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
