The Dismissal

Please join us downstairs for refreshments after the service to be used in their refugee ministry. As a result of your donations, many new residents to Canada will have a warm coat to wear this winter.

Better Sight & Sound

Large print copies of the bulletin and hymn book are available from the sidespeople, as are ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing.

Advent Lessons & Carols

Mark your calendar now for the date of this year's Advent Lessons & Carols service on Sunday, December 10 at 7:30 p.m. followed by a reception in the Parish Hall.

Help needed for the Out of the Cold dinner

St. Martin's will be providing the Out of the Cold dinner next Sunday evening, Nov. 26th at St. Matthew's, Islington. Volunteers are needed: to help prepare the food at St. Martin's next Saturday morning, Nov. 25th, and to help in the kitchen at St. Matthew's on the Sunday from 4:00pm to 7:00 p.m. Please contact Judith Kidd at jvkidd@sympatico.ca to volunteer.

Christmas Pageant

The Christmas pageant is only 5 weeks away. Please let Grace know if your child or grandchild would like to participate. Scripts will be available at the church next Sunday, November 26th.

2018 Church Calendars

A copy of the Anglican Church Calendar for 2018 can be seen at the back of the church. If you would like to purchase any calendars at $5.00 each, please place your name on the list provided with the number of calendars that you require. We will be ordering only the number of calendars requested on the list.

Nutcracker Fair

Thank you to all who worked so hard on preparing for and running yesterday's Nutcracker Fair. A special thank you goes to Helen Kolberg and the Nutcracker Fair committee. We also want to thank all those who donated items for the fair and also those who came out to work on the day, shop and provide support for this great event.

Order of St. Martin

Congratulations to Phil Snider who was awarded the Order of St. Martin as part of last Sunday's Patronal Festival celebrations.

New Social Media Co-Ordinator

Andrea Zinn has taken on the ministry of Social Media Co-ordinator which includes the parishes Facebook page. Her email address is azinn0821@gmail.com

Diocesan Synod

Diocesan Synod will be meeting this coming Friday and Saturday. Please keep in your prayers the members of Synod, both lay and clerical, as they meet together to consider the needs of our diocese.

Prayer over the Gifts

Gracious God, in this sacrament we have shared the body and blood of Christ. May we who have been nourished by holy things bear witness to his light, and share in his eternal priesthood; for he is Lord for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Holy God, in this eucharist we renew our baptismal covenant. Help us, through our offerings this day, to renounce all things that draw us from your love. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Announcements

Welcome

We welcome, Tim Stephenson, our fellow St. Martin's parishioner, who will be giving the annual lay Stewardship address at both services this morning.

Stewardship and Commitment Sunday

St. Martin's Stewardship campaign is well underway. By now, you should have received your Stewardship package, but extra copies are available at the back of the church. Your financial pledge and commitment of Time & Talent are important to the annual budgeting process and help in keeping St. Martin's running smoothly. These can still be submitted – including on-line – it's confidential, fast and easy – go to www.stmartininthefields.ca and follow the link, or fill out your forms, place them in the envelope provided, and place them on the collection plate by Commitment Sunday, November 26th.

Saturday Service & Supper

Come and join with us as we begin the season of Advent with the next Saturday Service and Supper to be held on Saturday, December 2 at 5:30 p.m. The service will focus on the great O Antiphons of Advent as in readings, song and prayer we begin our Advent journey together. The service is followed by a wonderful meal and time of fellowship. All are welcome.

Advent Quiet Day

Our Advent Quiet Day sponsored by St. Martin's, Holy Cross Priory, and St. John's, West Toronto will be held at St. Martin's on Saturday, December 9th from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The speaker for the Day will be the Primate, Archbishop Fred Hiltz, whose theme will be Mary: Her Salutation, Her Song, Her Service. The cost is $10 which includes lunch. Registration forms are available at the back of the church.

Coats for Romero House

Thank you to all those who donated gently used coats for Romero House 6

The flowers at the altar are given to the glory of God in loving memory of our father Bruce McKnight on the 93rd anniversary of his birth, given by David and Lynn McKnight and their families.

The Collect

Almighty God, you sent your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of the world. Free us from all that darkens and ensnares us, and bring us to eternal light and joy; through the power of him who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Judges

The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, after Ehud died. So the Lord sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-ha-goiim. Then the Israelites cried out to the Lord for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years. At that time Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel. She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgement. She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "The Lord, the God of Israel, commands you, 'Go, take position at Mount Tabor, bringing ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun. I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin's army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.'"

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labour pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing. 1 THESSALONIANS 5:1–11

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew
Jesus said, “For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’ And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’ Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.’ But his master replied, ‘You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”
