11:00 A.M. PROCESSION AND FESTAL EUCHARIST

Celebrant: Fr. Philip

Prelude

Easter Greeting

Priest: Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Priest: May his grace and peace be with you.

People: May he fill our hearts with joy.

THE PROCESSION

Priest: Let us go forth in peace. Alleluia

People: In the name of Christ. Amen. Alleluia

Processional Hymn: Lasst Uns Erfreuen

1. Light's glittering morn bedecks the sky;
Heaven thunders forth its victor-cry;
Alleluia, Alleluia!

The glad earth shouts her triumph high,
And groaning hell makes wild reply;
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

2. While he, the King, the mighty King,
Despoiling death of all its sting,
Alleluia, Alleluia!
And, trampling down the powers of night,
Brings forth his ransomed souls to light.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

3. His tomb of late the threefold guard
Of watch and stone and seal had barred;
Alleluia, Alleluia!
But now, in pomp and triumph high,
He comes from death to victory.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

4. The pains of hell are loosed at last;
The days of mourning now are past;
Alleluia, Alleluia!
An angel robed in light hath said,
"The Lord is risen from the dead."
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

FaithWorks Campaign

Please help us reach our 2018 FaithWorks goal by returning your FaithWorks cheque (made out to St. Martin's, with "FaithWorks" on the memo line) in the envelope provided on the collection plate or by mail to the church.

Easter Communion

If you know of someone who is unable to get to church this Easter and would like Easter Communion, please speak to Fr. Philip so he can arrange a visit.

Better Sight and Sound

Large print copies of the bulletin and the hymn book are available from the sidespeople, as are ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing capability.

Saturday Service & Supper

Mark your calendar now for the next Saturday Service & Supper to be held on Saturday, April 14th at 5:30 p.m. All are welcome to this more reflective service of prayers, readings and songs followed by a delicious meal.

Collection of Eyeglasses and Hearing Aids

A box is available at the back of the church to receive donations of gently used and unbroken eyeglasses (including prescription sunglasses) and hearing aids. Your donations will be distributed to those in need in various countries of the Global South. Next Sunday is the last day to receive your donations.

Parish Gift for Mother Susan

Envelopes are available at the back of the church to contribute to a parish gift for Canon Susan Bell as we give thanks for her 20 years of ministry at St. Martin's and pray for her new work as Co-adjutor Bishop of Niagara. Mother Susan's last Sunday at St. Martin's will be Sunday, April 29th.

Blessing of the Bicycles

The parish Missional Committee is sponsoring a special event in the St. Martin's garden—the Blessing of Bicycles—on Saturday, April 28th from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Bicycle inspections including pressure checks and seat height adjustments will also be available. There is no charge. Please invite your friends and neighbours to come along with you.

Outreach Art Fair and Bake Sale

Join us on Sunday, May 6 in the garden from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. for the Art Fair and Bake Sale in support of PARC's music program. The Parkdale Activity and Recreation Centre provides services to community members who may be dealing with issues such as homelessness, addiction, mental health, and poverty. Free admission.

Concert at St. Martin's

The Voices Chamber Choir presents a concert, Bach Rediscovered, at St. Martin's next Saturday, April 7 at 8 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door.

linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

John 20:1-18

Prayer over the Gifts

God our strength and salvation, receive all we offer you this day, and grant that we who have confessed your name, and received new life in baptism, may live in the joy of the resurrection, through Jesus Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

God of life, bring us to the glory of the resurrection promised in this Easter sacrament. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

Announcements

Happy Easter

We wish you all a very happy and blessed Easter. Our thanks go to all those who have worked so hard in so many different areas to help us to celebrate the events of Holy Week and Easter.

Easter Egg Hunt

Following the 11:00 a.m. Eucharist today, there will be an Easter Egg Hunt for the children. The children are invited to gather in the Sunday School rooms downstairs after the service in preparation for the Hunt.

Easter Monday

There will be a celebration of the Eucharist tomorrow at 7:00 p.m.

St. Martin's Garden

A meeting to discuss plans for this year's garden will be held next Sunday, April 8th, from 9:30 – 10:30 a.m. in the Guild Room between the services. All interested parishioners are welcome to attend or send along your ideas to Ingrid Whitaker or Patty McKnight.

Collect of the Day

Lord of life and power, through the mighty resurrection of your Son, you have overcome the old order of sin and death and have made all things new in him. May we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, reign with him in glory, who with you and the Holy Spirit is alive, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Acts.

Then Peter began to speak to them: “I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.

Acts 10:34-43

Psalm 118:14-24

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe. 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the
