Dismissal

Please join us downstairs in the Parish Hall for refreshments.

service. There is no charge for the ticket. St. Martin's has received a limited number of tickets for parishioners. If you would like to attend and would like a ticket, please speak to Cindy Paget or contact her at cpaget@rogers.com by April 25th. If you need transportation to the Cathedral, please let Cindy know as car pooling or bus transport is being arranged.

Outreach Art Fair and Bake Sale

Join us on Sunday, May 6 in the garden from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. for the Art Fair and Bake Sale in support of PARC's music program. The Parkdale Activity and Recreation Centre provides services to community members who may be dealing with issues such as homelessness, addiction, mental health, and poverty. Free admission.

Concert at St. Martin's

The Healey Willan Singers present a concert at St. Martin's on Saturday, April 28 at 8 p.m. The concert entitled, Women & Songs IV, features music by women composers and/or poets with special music to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I. Tickets ($20—regular, $15—students/seniors) available at the door. Reception to follow in the Parish Hall.

FaithWorks Campaign

Please help us reach our 2018 FaithWorks goal by returning your FaithWorks cheque (made out to St. Martin's, with "FaithWorks" on the memo line) in the envelope provided on the collection plate or by mail to the church.

Forward Day by Day

Copies of Forward Day by Day, a daily guide to prayer and scripture reading, for May to July are available at the rear of the church. Please put an extra loonie on the collection plate to cover the cost.

Better Sight and Sound

Large print editions of the leaflet and hymn book, and ear pieces connected to the sound system that boost hearing clarity and volume, are available from the sidespeople at the rear of the church.

Fr. Philip

Fr. Philip will be away from the parish for part of this coming week attending CAROA, the conference for Superiors of Anglican Religious Communities in North America. He can still be reached by leaving a message on the church telephone or by e-mail.

THE READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Fourth Sunday of Easter

ACTS 4:5-12; PSALM 23;

1 JOHN 3:16-24; JOHN 10:11-18

Prayer over the Gifts

Creator of all, you wash away our sins in water, you give us new birth by the Spirit, and redeem us in the blood of Christ. As we celebrate the resurrection, renew your gift of life within us. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Author of life divine, in the breaking of bread we know the risen Lord. Feed us always in these mysteries, that we may show your glory to all the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Announcements

Thank You

Thank you to all those who donated glasses to help those in need in the Global South. 117 pairs of glasses were donated.

Garden Clean-up

April 21st is a Community Clean Up day across Toronto and we'll be joining many of our neighbours who will be out cleaning up public spaces as we clean up St. Martin's garden and along the street-facing fence. Please join the garden team from 10:00 a.m. -12:00 p.m. next Saturday morning - no gardening experience required.

Invitation from the Missional Committee

We invite you to join the community on Saturday, April 28th from 11:00 am to 12:30 pm for free hot dogs, water and bicycle inspections at the Blessing of the Bicycles. All human powered vehicles, faiths and ages welcome - with or without a bicycle!

Parish Gift for Mother Susan

Envelopes are available at the back of the church to contribute to a parish gift for Canon Susan Bell as we give thanks for her 20 years of ministry at St. Martin's and pray for her new work as Co-adjutor Bishop of Niagara.

Thanksgiving Tea

Parishioners are invited to a Thanksgiving Tea in honour of Mother Susan in the Parish Hall on her last Sunday at St. Martin's, Sunday, April 29th from 1-3 pm. You are invited to come dressed for Tea (hats and gloves for the ladies are encouraged). For more information on how to participate and/or contribute, please contact Dianne Doughty at 416-766-9734 or doughtydg@hotmail.com

Consecration of Bishop-Elect Susan Bell

The service of Consecration for Mother Susan will be on Saturday, May 5 at 11 a.m. at Christ Church Cathedral, Hamilton. Because of the small size of the cathedral, you will need a ticket to be sure of a seat at the

The flowers at the Madonna are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Jean Fletcher on the anniversary of her 101st birthday today from her daughter, Jane Rozdzilski, and family.

The Collect

O God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread. Open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in his redeeming work, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Acts

Peter addressed the people, "You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made this man walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out."

Acts 3:12-19 3

Psalm 4

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Jesus himself stood among the disciples and said to them, “Peace be with you.” They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.”

A Reading from the First Letter of John

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. Everyone who commits sins is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

1 John 3:1-7
