diocese this Friday, June 1st in preparation for the episcopal election on June 9th. We will want to keep all those who have been nominated in our prayers and those who are synod delegates including those from St. Martin's, Fr. Philip, Anne Longmore and Jonathan Gentry. If you have any questions about the election or have any comments to share, you are invited to speak with any of these individuals prior to June 9th.

Ontario Election

The Ecclesiastical Province of Ontario has prepared a non-partisan leaflet to help Anglicans in the province as they consider the various issues facing the people of Ontario in the coming election. Copies of the leaflet are available at the back of the church.

Concert at St. Martin's

The Acquired Taste Choir presents an all-Canadian program at St. Martin's next Sunday, June 3 at 7:30 p.m. The concert includes pieces by Eleanor Daley, R. Murray Schaefer, Harry Somers, and many more. A reception will follow. Proceeds go to support PARC. Tickets ($20 general, $15 seniors/students) will be available at the door.

Garden Fund

Envelopes are available at the rear of the church for those who would like to contribute to the Garden Fund. These donations are used to maintain and enhance the beauty of our church garden which has become such a special place not only for parishioners but also for many people from the surrounding community.

Growing Healthy Stewards

On Sunday, June 17th at 12:30 PM, there will be a workshop on estate planning, funeral planning and wills – Death, Dying and Letting Go – at Church of the Redeemer, 162 Bloor Street West (at Avenue Rd). A light lunch will be served. Please let Peter Chauvin (at peter.chauvin@sympatico.ca) know if you are interested in attending. St. Martin's own Stewardship Committee hopes to host a similar workshop at St. Martin's later in the year.

Hi Ho Come to the Fair!

We are pleased to announce that St. Martin's is again hosting our neighbours and friends at our Neighbourhood Fun Fair on Saturday, June 23 from 10:00 to 2:00. But we need you to make this a success. We need your time – and baking talents. Please volunteer your time to help welcome our neighbours – anything from 1 to the full 4 hours – we will keep you busy. And those bakers, we need your cupcakes! (Please ensure cupcakes are nut free.) Please advise one of the Missional Team – Emily Bell, David Fleming, Glen Storey, or Kathie Wagg – of your time availability and of your willingness to provide cupcakes. Help to spread the spirit of Christ into our community!

FaithWorks Walkathon

Mark your calendars now for our annual FaithWorks Walkathon to be held this year on the Toronto Islands on the afternoon of Sunday, June 24th. Look in upcoming bulletins for further details.

Water is Life: Indigenous Water Protection, Witness, and Sacrifice on the Front Lines

As we prepare for National Aboriginal Day in June, the Christian Education Committee invites you to a "lunch and learn" next Sunday, June 3 from 1 – 2 pm, with the Reverend Leigh Kern on the subject of water, social justice, and public witness. Leigh is a priest serving at St James Cathedral. She serves on the Vision Keepers Council, which is a council of Indigenous youth and Elders that advises the Anglican Church of Canada (ACC) on subjects related to justice for Indigenous peoples. She is of both settler and Métis descent. . One of her great passions is helping run an Indigenous-led healing circle for street involved people living in Allen Gardens in downtown Toronto.

Baseball Game

St. Martin-in-the-baseball-field is back! Our parish will have a re-match against St. Mary Magdalene's on Sunday, June 10 directly following the 11 a.m. service. All ages and abilities are welcome to join the team or the cheering section. Lunch will be provided. Please speak to Grace Karram Stephenson for more details.

Better Sight and Sound

Large print editions of the leaflet and hymn book, and ear pieces connected to the sound system that boost hearing clarity and volume, are available from the sidespeople at the rear of the church.

Lychgate

The summer edition of the parish newsletter, the Lychgate, is now in preparation. If you have any news or an article to contribute, please e-mail it to the editors, Ian Greene and Eilonwy Morgan, by next Sunday, June 3rd at iangreene0766@rogers.com

Quiet Garden

Mark your calendars now for the parish Quiet Garden to be held on Saturday, June 16th from 10 to 1 p.m. in the garden of Lynn McKnight & Michael Attwood. Fr. Philip will be leading the day.

Tuesday Mornings in the Garden

Members of the Garden Team are at work in St. Martin's Garden every Tuesday morning 10:00 a.m. -12:00 p.m. and would welcome any help. No experience or tools are needed. Please contact Ingrid Whitaker at tikkitorches@gmail.com for more information. Please also get in touch if you would like to help out but cannot make Tuesday mornings.

Upcoming services in the Diocese

Today at 4:00 p.m. the Rev'd Karen Isaacs will be ordained priest in the parish of St. Mary & St. Martha (Eglinton & Weston Rd.). On Sunday, June 3rd at 4 p.m. Fr. Don Beyers will be inducted as Rector of Christ Church, Bolton. All are welcome at both services.

Deuteronomy 8:2-3; Psalm 34:1-8
1 Corinthians 11:23-29; John 6:47-58

The Collect

Father, we praise you: through your Word and Holy Spirit you created all things. You reveal your salvation in all the world by sending to us Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. Through your Holy Spirit you give us a share in your life and love. Fill us with the vision of your glory, that we may always serve and praise you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Isaiah 6:1-8

God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Romans 8:12-17

Psalm 29

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.” Jesus answered him, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother’s womb and be born?” Jesus answered, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, ‘You must be born from above.’ The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?” Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.”

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of

Prayer over the Gifts

Living God, receive all we offer you this day. Grant that hearing your word and responding to your Spirit, we may share in your divine life. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Almighty and eternal God, may we who have received this eucharist worship you in all we do, and proclaim the glory of your majesty. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.
