Tuesday Mornings in the Garden

Members of the Garden Team are at work in St. Martin's Garden every Tuesday morning 10:00 a.m. -12:00 p.m. and would welcome your help. No experience or tools are needed. Please contact Ingrid Whitaker at tikkitorches@hotmail.com for more information. Please also get in touch if you would like to help out but cannot make Tuesday mornings.

Lemonade on the Lawn

With warmer temperatures upon us, it is time to take coffee hour outside and give the Coffee Cohorts the summer off. Starting on June 24th, our hot drinks in the basement will become cold drinks in the garden! If you are around for July and August and able to help the "Lemonade on the Lawn" team on occasion please speak to Mary Conliffe to volunteer. Thanks!

Hi Ho Come to the Fair!

We are pleased to announce that St. Martin's is again hosting our neighbours and friends at our Neighbourhood Fun Fair on Saturday, June 23 from 10:00 to 2:00. We need you to make this a success. We need your time – and baking talents. Please volunteer your time to help welcome our neighbours – anything from 1 to the full 4 hours – we will keep you busy. And those bakers, we need your cupcakes! (Please ensure cupcakes are nut free.) Please advise one of the Missional Team – Emily Bell, David Fleming, Glen Storey, or Kathie Wagg – of your time availability and of your willingness to provide cupcakes. Help to spread the spirit of Christ into our community!

Christian Education Survey

Please place your completed surveys in the box at the back of the church.

Growing Healthy Stewards

Next Sunday, June 17th at 12:30 p.m., there will be a workshop on estate planning, funeral planning and wills at the Church of the Redeemer, (Bloor & Avenue Rd). A light lunch will be served. Please let Peter Chauvin (at peter.chauvin@sympatico.ca) know if you are interested in attending. St. Martin's own Stewardship Committee hopes to host a similar workshop at St. Martin's later in the year.

Opportunity for Girls who like to Sing

The Toronto Diocesan Girls Choir School will be hosting a residential choir camp for girls 8-18 years of age at Trafalgar Castle School, Whitby from August 6-19. The camp involves singing, swimming, musical theatre, dress up dinners, outdoor sports, arts and crafts, beach day, talent night and more. Please speak to Fr. Philip for more details or see the poster on the bulletin boards.

York Credit Valley Area Youth BBQ

Young people in the York Credit Valley Area are invited to an end of season BBQ at 6 p.m. on Friday, June 22nd at St. John, West Toronto (High Park & Humbervale). Join us for food, fun and games. Please speak to Grace Karram Stephenson or Phil Snider if you are interested and able to attend.

Prayer over the Gifts

Merciful God and Father, in Adam's fall we were born to death; in the new Adam we are reborn to life. In all we offer you this day may we share a taste of your eternal kingdom. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

O God, we have shared in the mysteries of the body and blood of Christ. Nourish us by this feast, that we may live the risen life and serve you faithfully in the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Announcements

Baseball Game

St. Martin-in-the-baseball-field is back! Our parish is holding a re-match against St. Mary Magdalene's today directly following the 11 a.m. service. All ages and abilities are welcome to join the team or the cheering section. Lunch will be provided. Please speak to Grace Karram Stephenson for more details.

Quiet Garden

A Quiet Garden will be held at the home of Lynn McKnight & Michael Attwood (19 Riverside Trail) next Saturday, June 16 from 9:30 to 1 p.m. Fr. Philip will be leading the day. The suggested donation is $10. Registration forms are available at the back of the church. Please give your completed form to Margaret Douglin or Fr. Philip.

FaithWorks Walkathon on June 24th after the 11 a.m service

FaithWorks allows us to share our blessings with others. FaithWorks Ministry Partners provide help and hope to thousands of individuals and families who are vulnerable and marginalized such as the 7,362 young adults living with mental health challenges who received support in 2017. After a pizza lunch in the Guild Room, we will leave, preferably by TTC, for the Toronto Island Ferry (hopefully) around 1:30pm. Tickets are available on-line. We will take the ferry to Hanlan's Point, walk to St. Andrew by-the-Lake on Centre Island where we will stop for a picnic (please bring a light picnic to eat and/or share); and before we leave, we will join together for an evensong service in the church. We will return home via the Ward's Island ferry. Why not bring friends and family? For those who may not want to walk the 5km from ferry to ferry please join us for part of the time on the Island. Pledge sheets are available at the back of the church. Questions? Please contact Judith Kidd at jvkidd@sympatico.ca

Garden Fund

Envelopes are available at the rear of the church for those wishing to contribute to the Garden Fund. These donations help to maintain and enhance the beauty of our church garden which has become such a special place not only for parishioners but also for so many of our neighbours.

The flowers at the altar are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Barbara Gentry, her parents and siblings from Jonathan, George, Martin & Cris.

The Collect

O God, you have assured the human family of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Deliver us from the death of sin and raise us to new life in him, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel

Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, "You are old and your sons do not follow in your ways; appoint for us, then, a king to govern us, like other nations." But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to govern us." Samuel prayed to the Lord, and the Lord said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them. Just as they have done to me, from the day I brought them up out of Egypt to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so also they are doing to you. Now then, listen to their voice; only—you shall solemnly warn them, and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them." So Samuel reported all the words of the Lord to the people who were asking him for a king. He said, "These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots. He will take your male and female slaves, and the best of your cattle and donkeys, and put them to his work. He will take one-tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves. And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but the Lord will not answer you in that day." But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; they said, "No! but we are determined to have a king over us, so that we also may be like other nations, and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles."

1 Samuel 8.4-11, 16-20

Psalm 138

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal. For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 Corinthians 4.13-5.1

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

The crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain Jesus, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind." And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered. Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"—for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."
