Thank you

We are grateful for all those parishioners who supported the walkers on this year's FaithWorks Walkathon on the Toronto Islands at the end of June. Over $3,000 was raised to assist the ministries supported by FaithWorks.

Bring back a Church Bulletin

Are you travelling this summer? Don't forget to bring back a bulletin from the churches you visit on holiday so that we can post them on the church bulletin board.

Choir School

Fr. Philip completes his work as Chaplain of the Diocesan Girls Choir School today. The girls will be singing a Recital and Evensong at St. James' Cathedral this afternoon at 4 p.m. All are welcome.

Better Sight and Sound

Large print editions of the leaflet and hymn book, and ear pieces connected to the sound system that boost hearing clarity and volume, are available from the sidespeople at the rear of the church.

Parish Fall Dinner

Mark you calendars now for the annual parish dinner in the church garden which will take place on Sunday, September 9 at 5:30 p.m.

FEED THE

Announcements

Thank you

Thank you to all those who made the visit of the Diocesan Girls Choir School last Sunday such a wonderful occasion. We are especially grateful to Eilonwy Morgan and all those who worked with her to provide a delicious lunch for the girls and to provide such wonderful treats for the whole congregation. Thank you.

Lammas Food Collection

Throughout the month of August, boxes are available at the rear of the church to receive your donations of non-perishable food items. Food received during this annual Lammas food collection sponsored by the Outreach Committee will be donated to the food bank at St.

Bartholomew's, Regent Park (smaller tins and boxes are most useful for the many single men who use this food bank). Lammas is the traditional festival in the church's calendar that occurs in early August that is associated with thanksgiving for the bounty of the harvest. It was often celebrated with the gift of bread to be shared with others. It is very appropriate therefore that we bring our gifts of food to share with those in need. You may also make cash donations. These donations will be used to make bulk food purchases from wholesalers to donate to the Food Bank.

Access to the Parish Hall during July and August

Toronto KIDZ Summer Camp is renting our parish hall and classrooms Monday to Friday from July 2nd to August 24th. As a result, no one except camp staff may enter the hall or classrooms for any reason on these days between the hours of 8 a.m. - 6:30 p.m.

Forward Day by Day

Copies of Forward Day by Day, a daily guide to prayer and Scripture reading, for the period August-October are available at the back of the church. Please put an extra loonie on the collection plate to cover the cost of a copy. Thank you.

Summer Book Club

The Christian Education Committee invites you to join them this summer in reading a short devotional book on the blessings of Ordinary time: Everyday God: The Spirit of the Ordinary by Paula Gooder. We will then gather for three Wednesday evenings in September (12, 19 and 26) to reflect on it together. Copies of the book - new, used, E-versions or audio-books - can be purchased on-line from your favourite bookseller, or speak to Mary Conliffe at the lemonade table after the 11 a.m. service and she will order a copy for you for $15.

The Collect

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and sent into our hearts the Spirit of your Son. Give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that all people may know the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the First Book of Kings

Then David slept with his ancestors, and was buried in the city of David. The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established. Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David; only, he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places. The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I should give you." And Solomon said, "You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?" It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you. I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honour all your life; no other king shall compare with you. If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life."

1 Kings 2:10-12, 3.3-14

Psalm 111

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 5:15-20

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Jesus said to the people, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh." The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever."

John 6:51-58

Prayer over the Gifts

Loving God and Father, you have adopted us to be your heirs. Accept all we offer you this day and give us grace to live as faithful children. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Eternal God, we have received a token of your promise. May we who have been nourished by holy things live as faithful heirs of your promised kingdom, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
