Coats for Romero House

Boxes are available at the back of the church to receive your donations of winter coats (for both adults and children) and winter boots to donate to Romero House for their ministry with refugees.

Arthur Brown/Basil Tonks Annual Dinner

This annual dinner to support the ministry of the Anglican Church in the West Indies will take place at St. Andrew's, Scarborough (2333 Victoria Park Ave.) next Saturday, November 3. The evening begins with a celebration of the Eucharist at 5 p.m. followed by dinner at 6 p.m. Archbishop Johnson will be the guest of honour. Tickets ($60 each, $30 of which is tax receiptable) are available today from Frank Bodkin.

Order of St. Martin

You are invited to nominate parishioners for the Order of St. Martin to be given at our Patronal Festival on Sunday, November 11. This award honours members of our parish family through whom we see the light of Christ. Nomination packages are available at the back of the church. Today is the last day to submit completed nominations.

Eyeglasses

A box is available at the back of the church to receive your donations of eyeglasses that will be distributed to those in need elsewhere in the world.

Anglican Orthodox International Theological Dialogue

If you would be interested in finding out more about this dialogue in which Fr. Philip is a participant, please see the official communiqué issued at the end of the gathering in Cyprus by going to www.anglicancommunion.org/relationships/ecumenical-dialogues/orthodox.aspx and clicking on the communiqué for 2018.

Evensong at St. Olave's

Choral Evensong for St. Simon and St. Jude will be sung by the choir from St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Ontario this afternoon at 5 p.m. at St. Olave's Church. All are welcome!

Better Sight and Sound

Large print editions of the leaflet and hymn book, and ear pieces that boost hearing clarity are available from the sidespeople.

World Parliament of Religions

The World Parliament of Religions, the largest global gathering of faith leaders from across the world, comes to the Metro Toronto Convention Centre beginning this week from November 1-7. The Anglican Church of Canada will have a booth in the exhibit hall. There are many special speakers and workshops. See www.parliamentofreligions.org/parliament/2018-toronto for more information.

Forward Day by Day

Copies of the November-January edition of Forward Day by Day, a daily guide to prayer and Bible reading, are available at the back of the church. Please place an extra loonie on the collection plate to cover the cost.

Announcements

All Souls

The Eucharist for All Souls will be celebrated this Friday, November 2nd at 11 a.m. To have individuals remembered in the prayers at this service, please print their names in the binder available at the back of the church.

Interim Envelope Statements

Please pick up your interim envelope statement at the back of the church. If you have questions about your statement, please contact the Envelope Secretary, Jonathan Gentry at gentryleishman@gmail.com

Stewardship Campaign

St. Martin's annual Stewardship campaign is now underway. If you didn't pick up your Stewardship package last Sunday, please do so today. Extra packages are also available at the back of the church. Next week, join us downstairs after the 11 o'clock service for the annual Parish Ministries Fair where you can find out about all of the groups and activities which make St. Martin's tick. You are also able to submit your Pledge Sheet and Time & Talent form confidentially on-line – it's fast and easy – just go to www.stmartininthefields.ca and follow the link. We ask that pledges and time and talent submissions be completed by November 25th – “Commitment Sunday”.

Pre-Authorized Remittance (PAR)

If you would like to donate to St. Martin's (or Faithworks) using PAR, or if you are a current PAR user and wish to alter your monthly deduction for 2019, please contact the Envelope Secretary, Jonathan Gentry, at 416-766-8491 or gentryleishman@gmail.com “.

Thank you

The Garden Committee would like to thank all those who have donated bulbs to be planted in the St. Martin's garden. Thanks to your generosity there will be a lovely display of colour in the garden this coming spring.

Parish Ministries Fair

Heads of committees and groups within the parish are reminded to pick up their display board today so that it can be updated and ready to display at next Sunday's Parish Ministries Fair.

Nutcracker Fair

Frozen entrees in individual, microwaveable containers will again be featured at the bake table at the Nutcracker Fair November 17th. Kits consisting of containers, labels and a set of suggestions and guidelines will be available during the coffee hour this morning and on November 4th. Our ever popular Pastry Cook bake table also needs your baking donations. Cookies are a very popular item, as there never seems to be enough of them during the holidays! When baking your donation items for the fair, please include your favourite cookie recipe. As well, donations are needed for our Belle & Beau of the Ball booths. New or like-new casual and formal wear as well as vintage jewelry are very much appreciated. For more information, or if you want to become a

The Collect

Lord God our redeemer, who heard the cry of your people and sent your servant Moses to lead them out of slavery, free us from the tyranny of sin and death, and by the leading of your Spirit bring us to our promised land; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Job

Then Job answered the Lord: “I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted. ‘Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?’ Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know. ‘Hear, and I will speak; I will question you, and you declare to me.’ I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you; therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes.” And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Kerenhappuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews 7:23-28

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

They came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Mark 10:46-52

Prayer over the Gifts

God of constant love you have guided your people in all times and ages. May we who offer you our praise today always be ready to follow where you lead; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

God our guide, you have fed us with bread from heaven as you fed the people of Israel. May we who have been inwardly nourished be ready to follow you all our days; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
