Dismissal

Please join us downstairs in the Parish Hall for refreshments and the Parish Ministries Fair.

Patronal Festival

Next Sunday is our Patronal Festival. Bishop Victoria Matthews will be our preacher at the 11 a.m. service. An Act of Remembrance will also be part of this liturgy.

Ride to St. Martin's needed on Sundays

A parishioner needs help getting to and from the 11 a.m. service at St. Martin's. She lives at Wycliffe College (on Hoskin Avenue near Queen's Park Circle). She uses a wheelchair which can be folded up and stored in a car's trunk. If you could help, please speak to Fr. Philip.

Coats for Romero House

This is the final week to receive your donations of winter coats (both adults and children) and winter boots for Romero House's ministry with refugees.

Eyeglasses

A box is available at the back of the church to receive your donations of eyeglasses that will be distributed to those in need elsewhere in the world.

Anglican Orthodox International Theological Dialogue

Interested in finding out more about this dialogue in which Fr. Philip is a participant? Please see the communiqué issued at the end of the gathering in Cyprus by going to www.anglicancommunion.org/relationships/ecumenical-dialogues/orthodox.aspx and clicking on the communiqué for 2018.

Better Sight and Sound

Large print editions of the leaflet and hymn book, and ear pieces that boost hearing clarity are available from the sidespeople.

World Parliament of Religions

The World Parliament of Religions, the largest global gathering of faith leaders, continues at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre until November 7. There are many special speakers and workshops. For more information see www.parliamentofreligions.org/parliament/2018-toronto

Forward Day by Day

Copies of the November-January edition of Forward Day by Day, a daily guide to prayer and Bible reading, are available at the back of the church. Please place an extra loonie on the collection plate to cover the cost.

MAID

The York Credit Valley Area Council presents a special discussion event on Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID) on Saturday, November 24 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at St. John's, Dixie. This is the first of two sessions and will focus on the historical and theological context for the question. The second session to be held at a later date will focus on pastoral and practical implications. All are welcome. Please register online via the York Credit Valley Area webpage on the diocesan site -www.toronto.anglican.ca

Refugee Support Concert

The Toronto Welsh Male Voice Choir will sing a concert on Sunday, December 2 at 2 p.m. at Martin Luther Church (2379 Lakeshore Blvd. West) to raise funds to support the joint Refugee project sponsored by Christ Church St. James and others. Please see the poster for more details.

Announcements

Interim Envelope Statements

Please pick up your interim envelope statement at the back of the church. If you have questions about your statement, please contact the Envelope Secretary, Jonathan Gentry at gentryleishman@gmail.com

Parish Ministries Fair

Please join us downstairs today after the 11 o'clock service for the annual Parish Ministries Fair where you can find out about all of the groups and activities which make St. Martin's tick.

Stewardship Campaign

St. Martin's annual Stewardship campaign is now underway. You should have received your stewardship package by now. If you haven't, extra packages are available at the back of the church. You can also submit your Pledge Sheet and Time & Talent form confidentially on-line – it's fast and easy – just go to www.stmartininthefields.ca and follow the link. Please return your completed forms to the church by Commitment Sunday, Nov. 25.

Pre-Authorized Remittance (PAR)

If you would like to donate to St. Martin's (or FaithWorks) using PAR, or if you are a current PAR user and wish to alter your monthly deduction for 2019, please contact the Envelope Secretary, Jonathan Gentry, at 416-766-8491 or gentryleishman@gmail.com “.

Thank you

The Garden Committee would like to thank all those who donated bulbs to be planted in the St. Martin's garden. Thanks to your generosity there will be a lovely display of colour in the garden this coming spring.

Nutcracker Fair - November 17, 10AM - 2PM

This year's Fair is fast approaching, and we need your help to make it as successful as ever. Baskets are available today at Coffee Hour to be filled with your Silent Auction donation items and should be returned next Sunday for wrapping and decorating. Sports and cultural event tickets, original works of art or crafts are still needed. Belle and Beau of the Ball donations of festive and casual “like new” clothing and hand-crafted items for Under the Tree Gift Shop can be dropped off next Sunday or during the day on Friday, November 16. Cookies and Christmas baked goods can also be brought in Friday the 16th or before 9:30am on the day of the Fair. If you have any questions, please contact Helen Kolberg at helenkolberg@gmail.com or call 416-588-4903. Flyers, advertising the Fair, are available at the back of the church that you can share with your friends and neighbours.

Ladies, we want your jewellery!

Please take a look at your jewelry collection to see what you don't wear or need anymore...and donate it to the Nutcracker Fair. We get lots of eager customers at the jewellery stall each year, so we rely on the donations from our parishioners to meet the demand. Please give your jewellery items to either Allison Turner or Ann Castro who will be happy to receive them now. 6

The Collect

Almighty God, whose people are knit together in one Holy Church, the mystical Body of your Son, grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Wisdom of Solomon

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

A Reading from the Book of Revelation

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

Revelation 21:1-6a

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

John 11:32-44

Prayer over the Gifts

Holy and mighty God, we give you thanks for the triumph of Christ in the lives of all his saints. Receive all we offer you this day, and help us, like them, to run our course with faith, that we may come to your eternal kingdom. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Lord of hosts, we praise your glory reflected in your saints. May we who share at this table be filled with the joy of your eternal kingdom, where Jesus is Lord, now and for ever. Amen.
