Help needed for the Out of the Cold Dinner

St. Martin's will be providing the Out of the Cold dinner at St. Matthew's, Islington on Sunday evening, December 2nd. Volunteers are needed to help: six people to help prepare the food at St. Martin's on Saturday morning, December 1st at 9:00am; three people to serve in the kitchen on Sunday, December 2nd (from 4:00pm to 7:00pm) at St. Matthew's, and two people able to load and empty the dishwasher (able to lift a fully loaded dishwasher tray) on December 2nd (from 4:30 to 7:00). Please speak to Judith Kidd after the 8:30 am service or Glen Storey after the 11:00 am service. Or, contact Judith by e-mail at - jvkidd@sympatico.ca or Glen at storeybook25@gmail.com for more information or to volunteer.

FaithWorks launches $75,000 challenge

Thank you so much for the very generous contributions many have made to the 2018 FaithWorks campaign. With these funds FaithWorks feeds, shelters, nurtures and befriends over 30,000 people every year in our community and around the world. Thanks to the generosity of an anonymous donor, up to $75,000 is available to match dollar for dollar all new or increased gifts. If you had been thinking of making a donation, it would now have double the benefit.

Pastoral Emergency

Fr. Philip will be away mid-week attending a Chapter meeting of his religious community, the Oratory of the Good Shepherd. In case of a pastoral emergency, please contact Cindy Paget or Philip Savage.

Announcements

Nutcracker Fair

Thank you to all those who worked so hard on preparing for and running yesterday's Nutcracker Fair. Special thanks go to Helen Kolberg and her organizing committee. We also thank all those who donated items for the Fair and those who came out to work on the day, who shopped, and provided support for this great event.

Advent Series

Join us on four Wednesday evenings in Advent as we meet to watch and discuss some of the classic animated films of the season. The first gathering will be on Wednesday, November 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the Guild Room. Popcorn will be served! This event is open to all ages.

Stewardship Campaign

St. Martin's annual Stewardship campaign is now underway. You should have received your stewardship package by now. If you haven't, extra packages are available at the back of the church. You can also submit your Pledge Sheet and Time & Talent form confidentially on-line – it's fast and easy – just go to www.stmartininthefields.ca and follow the link. Please return your completed forms to the church by next Sunday, Nov. 25 which is Commitment Sunday.

Parish Newsletter

The next edition of the parish newsletter, The Lychgate, is now in preparation. If you have information or an article to be included, please e-mail the material to the editors, Eilonwy Morgan and Ian Greene, by November 25 at iangreene0766@rogers.com

Ride to St. Martin's needed on Sundays

A parishioner needs help getting to and from from the 11 a.m. service at St. Martin's. She lives at Wycliffe College (Hoskin Avenue near Queen's Park Circle). She uses a wheelchair which can be folded up and stored in a car's trunk. If you can help, please speak to Fr. Philip.

MAID

The York Credit Valley Area Council presents a special discussion event on Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID) this coming Saturday, November 24 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at St. John's, Dixie. All are welcome. Please register online via the York Credit Valley Area webpage on the diocesan site -www.toronto.anglican.ca

Better Sight and Sound

Large print editions of the leaflet and hymn book, and ear pieces that boost hearing clarity are available from the sidespeople.

The Collect

Almighty God, you sent your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of the world. Free us from all that darkens and ensnares us, and bring us to eternal light and joy; through the power of him who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel

On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters; but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the Lord had closed her womb. Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the Lord had closed her womb. So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the Lord, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. Her husband Elkanah said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?" After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the Lord. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the Lord. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the Lord, and wept bitterly. She made this vow: "O Lord of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head." As she continued praying before the Lord, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. So Eli said to her, "How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine." But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the Lord. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time." Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him." And she said, "Let your servant find favour in your sight." Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer. They rose early in the morning and worshipped before the Lord; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the Lord remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the Lord." 1 Samuel 1:4-20

THE READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Reign of Christ

2 Samuel 23:1-7; Psalm 132:1-13;
Revelation 1:4b-8; John 11:33-37

Canticle: 1 Samuel 2.1-10

My heart exults in the Lord,
my strength is exalted in my God.
My mouth derides my enemies,
because I rejoice in your salvation.
There is no Holy One like you, O Lord,
nor any Rock like you, our God.
For you are a God of knowledge and by you our actions are weighed.
The bows of the mighty are broken,
but the feeble gird on strength.
Those who were full now search bread,
but those who were hungry are well fed.
The barren woman has borne sevenfold,
but she who has many children is forlorn.
Both the poor and the rich are of your making,
you bring low and you also exalt.
You raise up the poor from the dust,
and lift the needy from the ash heap.
You make them sit with the rulers,
and inherit a place of honour.
For the pillars of the earth are yours
and on them you have set the world.

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Hebrews 10:11-14

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.” When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.”

Mark 13:1-8

Prayer over the Gifts

Holy God, in this eucharist we renew our baptismal covenant. Help us, through our offering this day, to renounce all things that draw us from your love. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Gracious God, in this sacrament we have shared the body and blood of Christ. May we who have been nourished by holy things bear witness to his light, and share in his eternal priesthood; for he is Lord for ever and ever. Amen.
