Announcements

Thank you

Thank you to all those involved in cooking and serving our annual Pancake Supper this past Tuesday. It was a wonderful evening. We are also grateful to the Dufferin Mall No Frills store for their donation of food.

Lenten Study Series

St. Martin's parishioner, Dr. Joseph Mangina, will lead a Lenten series on the Apostles' Creed. All are welcome. The series will begin with a light lunch and first session today after the 11 a.m. service, and will then continue on 4 consecutive Tuesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. beginning March 19. We will be using the book The Apostles' Creed: A Guide to the Ancient Catechism by Ben Myers. Copies of the book can be purchased from Fr. Philip today.

Pilgrimage to Rome

A special presentation will be made on Saturday evening, March 23 by St. Martin's parishioner, Jenn McIntyre, who is also the Director of Romero House. Following a pizza supper at 6 p.m., Jenn will speak about and show pictures of her recent pilgrimage with several others from Romero House to attend the canonization of Arbp. Oscar Romero at St. Peter's in Rome. The evening will conclude with Compline.

Dirt Sales

St. Martin's Scouting groups will again be selling bags of soil and fertilizer to help you as you prepare your garden for planting this spring, and to help the 32nd Scouting group raise needed funds for their programs. There will be a table at the Coffee Hour today and next week where you can find out more about what is available for purchase and you can place your orders for later delivery.

Lenten Quiet Day

Once again this Lent, St. Martin's, Holy Cross Priory and St John's, West Toronto will be co-hosting a Lenten Quiet Day to take place on Saturday, March 30 from 9:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. at St. John's, West Toronto. The Rev'd Lucy Reid, the Incumbent of St. Aidan's in the Beach, will be the leader for the day and her theme will be Every Breath is Holy. The registration fee is $10 and includes lunch.

Out of the Cold

Thank you to all those parishioners who both prepared and served the Out of the Cold Dinner at St. Matthew's, Islington last Sunday evening.

Parish Newsletter

The next edition of the parish newsletter, The Lychgate, is now in preparation. If you have news or an article to submit, please send it to the editors, Ian Greene and Eilonwy Morgan at iangreene0766@rogers.com by Sunday, March 24.

Mums & Tots Pickleball

Kid's Church and the Missional Team are hosting a new initiative, an opportunity once a month for Mums & Tots connected to the Pickleball program in the parish. Child care will be provided so that mothers can play 6

The Collect

Almighty God, whose Son fasted forty days in the wilderness, and was tempted as we are but did not sin, give us grace to discipline ourselves in submission to your Spirit, that as you know our weakness, so we may know your power to save; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me." You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

Deuteronomy 26.1-11 3

Psalm 91.1-2, 9-16

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

“The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart” that is, the word of faith that we proclaim; because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” Romans 10:8b-13

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone.’” Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, “To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’” Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’” Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time. Luke 4:1-13

Prayer over the Gifts

God our refuge and our strength, receive all we offer you this day, and through the death and resurrection of your Son transform us to his likeness. We ask this in his name. Amen.
