Tour of the Donovan Collection of Art

Over the past fifty years Fr. Daniel Donovan, Emeritus Professor of Theology at the University of Saint Michael's College, U of T, has assembled a remarkable collection of paintings and sculptures now residing in the college. Art, he says, "speaks to us on many levels," and in this collection particularly, the pieces work "as signs of the human spirit ... as it reaches out beyond the everyday ... to the Mystery that surrounds and permeates and gives depth and meaning to our lives." Fr. Donovan has invited us to join him on a tour of the collection on Saturday, April 27 from 10 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Due to space limitations, Fr Donovan has asked us to keep our group size to 12 to 15. To register for the tour contact Sheila Jennison at sheilajennison36@gmail.com

Easter Vigil Party

Planning has begun for our annual party to celebrate the Resurrection after the Easter Vigil on Saturday, April 20. This is a time when we welcome many people to St. Martin's. They bring good appetites and so we need lots of refreshments, particularly savoury finger food and desserts. Donations of beer and wine would also be much appreciated. If you can help with the set up, running or clean up of the party, please speak to Philip Savage. If you can bring some food, please let Kathie Wagg know at Coffee Hour.

We can help our Community

Please remember those less fortunate in our neighbourhood by donating some non-perishable food, and household or personal items for our Blessing Box in the lychgate. You may also have some books to share. There is a box to receive your donations at the back of the church. God bless.

Better Sight and Sound

Large print editions of the bulletin and hymn book are available from the sidespeople. They also have ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing.

Save the Date

Mark your calendars now for St. Martin's parish retreat to be held at Camp Nokomis, Bell Lake from June 7-8, 2019. The speakers will be Monica and Matthew Green (former St. Martin's parishioners now living in the U.S.). All ages are welcome.

Please join us for refreshments downstairs in the Parish Hall.

Thank You

Thank you to all those who worked so hard and provided us with such a delicious FaithWorks breakfast last Sunday, and thank you to Lee Jeffrey for providing the Simnel Cake we enjoyed at the Coffee Hour last Sunday.

Foot Washing

On Maundy Thursday evening at the 8 p.m. Eucharist we follow our Lord's example as he washed the disciples' feet at the Last Supper. If you would be willing to have a foot washed during the service, please sign up on the sheet at the back of the church or contact Fr. Philip.

Our 2019 parish FaithWorks campaign continues. FaithWorks is the Diocese of Toronto's co-ordinated outreach effort supporting 15 ministry partners who reach out to those in need in our greater Toronto community. You can help in this outreach work by returning your FaithWorks cheque (made out to the parish, memo "FaithWorks") on the offering plate or by mailing it to the church. For more information, please speak to Judith Kidd.

The Collect

Most merciful God, by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ, you created humanity anew. May the power of his victorious cross transform those who turn in faith to him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honour me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee, as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead. I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:4b-14

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

John 12:1-8

Prayer over the Gifts

Eternal God, your only Son suffered death upon the cross to bring the world salvation. Accept the praise and thanksgiving we offer you this day, in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Palm/Passion Sunday

Next Sunday is Palm/Passion Sunday. Parents are reminded that children are to remain with them in the church at the beginning of the service. They will go down to Church School after the Procession.
