The company of angels are praising thee on high,
and we with all creation in chorus make reply. Refrain.

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
our praise and prayer and anthems before thee we present. Refrain.

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:5-11

Announcements

Easter Flowers

Today is the last day to submit Easter Flower envelopes (available at the back of the church) with names to be remembered in the Easter bulletins.

Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at 7:30 p.m. This is a short service in which we walk with Jesus along the road to Calvary. As we process around the church from station to station there are short scriptural readings and prayers related to each incident along Christ's path. Many people find this a wonderful service of reflection that helps them to identify more closely with Christ on his way to the cross.

Thank You

Thank you to all those who made palm crosses yesterday.

Entry Hymn

The royal banners forward go; the cross shines forth in mystic glow, where he, the Life, did death endure, and by that death did life procure.

There while he hung, his sacred side by soldier's spear was opened wide to cleanse us in the precious flood of water mingled with his blood.

Fulfilled is all his words foretold; then spread the banners, and unfold love's crowning power, that all may see he reigns and triumphs from the tree.

O tree of grace, the conquering sign, which dost in royal purple shine, gone is thy shame; for, lo, each bough proclaims the prince of glory now.

For once thy favoured branches bore the wealth that did the world restore, the priceless treasure, freely spent to pay for our enfranchisement.

Father of all, life's source and spring, may every soul thy praises sing;
may those obey the rule of heaven, for whom the perfect life was given.

The Liturgy of the Palms

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you un-tying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it." Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!" Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

Luke 19:28-40

The Liturgy of the Passion

The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everliving God, in tender love for all our human race you sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take our flesh and suffer death upon a cruel cross. May we follow the example of his great humility, and share in the glory of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he awakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Isaiah 50:4-9a

Psalm 31:9-16
