Petals for Pikangikum

Geraniums will be on sale next Sunday at the church. The proceeds of these geranium sales will go to support the water project at the First Nations village of Pikangikum in north-west Ontario. You might also like to donate the geraniums that you buy to the church garden so that we can have a wonderful display of colour this summer.

Forward Day by Day

Copies of this daily guide for prayer and Scripture reading for the months of May-July are available at the back of the church. Please place an extra loonie on the collection plate to cover the cost of each copy.

Tuesday Mornings in the Church Garden

On Tuesday mornings from 10 a.m. -12 p.m. you are invited to help care for our church garden. No experience or tools are needed. Please contact Ingrid Whitaker at tikkitorches@hotmail.com or Patty McKnight at pattymcknight@sympatico.ca for more information. Please also get in touch if you could help out but cannot make Tuesday mornings.

Thy Kingdom Come

Take part in the world-wide ecumenical wave of prayer, known as Thy Kingdom Come, from May 30th to June 9th. Join Bishop Andison and Area Youth Coordinator Ali McIntosh for an informal worship and prayer party to celebrate this global initiative on Friday, June 7 from 7-9 p.m. at Christ the King, Etobicoke.

Blessing of Bicycles

On Saturday May 25 (not the long weekend) we are hosting a Blessing of Bicycles from 11 am to 12:30 pm in the garden. We are looking for volunteers who will help on the day. Please lend a hand with set-up, distributing food and drinks, passing out stickers, or clean-up. Please speak with Kathie Wagg or Bethanne Bell if you can help. We can chat at coffee hour or over email (waggfamily@bell.net ; writebethanne@gmail.com). And bring your bicycle to have it blessed!

him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

The Collect

O God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread. Open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in his redeeming work, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

Creator of all, you wash away our sins in water, you give us new birth by the Spirit, and redeem us in the blood of Christ. As we celebrate the resurrection, renew your gift of life within us. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Author of life divine, in the breaking of the bread we know the risen Lord. Feed us always in these mysteries, that we may show your glory to all the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Acts

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

Acts 9:1-6

Psalm 30

Reading from the Revelation to John

Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!” Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, “To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might forever and ever!” And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshipped. Revelation 5:11-14

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will go with you.” They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, “Children, you have no fish, have you?” They answered him, “No.” He said to them, “Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.” So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to
