Quiet Garden Day

Today around the world Anglican churches and others are celebrating Quiet Garden Day giving thanks for the many places that host Quiet Gardens throughout the Anglican Communion. St. Martin's has been for many years a participating member of the Quiet Garden Movement and hosts one of the three Quiet Gardens in the Greater Toronto area. To find out more about the Quiet Garden movement, please go to www.quietgarden.org

Thank you

Thank you to the members of the parish's Missional Team and all those many people who assisted them in mounting our special Neighbourhood Fun Fair yesterday. It was a wonderful day and a great way to reach out to so many who live in the community surrounding the church.

Tuesday Mornings in the Garden

This Tuesday, June 25th from 10 a.m. – 12 p.m. will be our last regular gardening day till September. Thanks to all who have helped out during May and June. Weeding and watering will continue over the summer as schedules permit. Please speak to Ingrid Whitaker or Patty McKnight if you can help out.

Garden Fund

Envelopes are available at the back of the church for those wishing to contribute to the Garden Fund. These donations help to maintain and enhance the beauty of our church garden which has become such a special place not only for parishioners but also for so many of our neighbours.

FaithWorks Walkathon

Our annual FaithWorks Walkathon took place on Sunday, June 2nd on the water-logged Toronto Islands. Walkers are now approaching those who sponsored them on the walk so that they can collect their pledges for FaithWorks. Thank you for your support.

We can help our Neighbourhood

Please remember those less fortunate in our neighbourhood by donating some non-perishable food, and household or personal items for our Blessing Box in the lychgate. You may also have some books to share. The box to receive your donations is at the back of the church.

Opportunity for Girls who like to Sing

O God, who in a wonderful sacrament has left unto us a memorial of your passion. The Collect

O God, your Son Jesus Christ has left to us this meal of bread and wine in which we share his body and his blood. May we who celebrate this sign of his great love show in our lives the fruits of his redemption; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Remember the long way that the Lord your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commandments. He humbled you by letting you hunger, then by feeding you with manna, with which neither you nor your ancestors were acquainted, in order to make you understand that one does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord.

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Jesus said, “Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.” The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” So Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever.”

John 6:47-58

Prayer over the Gifts

Father, we spread this table to remember the loving sacrifice of Jesus Christ, your Son. Accept all we offer you this day. Bind us together in his love and in the love he has commanded us to bring one another; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

God our guide, you have fed us with bread from heaven as you fed the people of Israel. May we who have been inwardly nourished be ready to follow you all our days; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
