and friends at our Neighbourhood Fun Fair on Saturday, June 22 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. But we need you to make this a success. We need your time – and baking talents. Please volunteer your time to help welcome our neighbours – anything from 1 to the full 4 hours – we will keep you busy. And those bakers, we need your cupcakes! (Please ensure cupcakes are nut free.) Please advise one of the Missional Team – Bethanne Bell, David Fleming, Glen Storey, Kathy Mansfield or the Rev. Alison Hari-Singh – of your time availability and of your willingness to provide cupcakes. Help to spread the spirit of Christ into our community!

Parish Newsletter

The next edition of the parish newsletter, The Lychgate, is now in preparation. If you have any news or an article to submit, please send it to the editors Ian Greene and Eilonwy Morgan at iangreene0766@rogers.com by today.

Garden Fund

Envelopes are available at the back of the church for those wishing to contribute to the Garden Fund. These donations help to maintain and enhance the beauty of our church garden which has become such a special place not only for parishioners but also for so many of our neighbours.

Concert at St. Martin's

The Voices Chamber Choir will present a concert featuring the music of Haydn and Handel at St. Martin's next Sunday, June 9 at 3 p.m. Tickets ($20 adults, $15 students/seniors) will be available at the door.

We can help our Neighbourhood

Please remember those less fortunate in our neighbourhood by donating some non-perishable food, and household or personal items for our Blessing Box in the lychgate. You may also have some books to share. The box to receive your donations is at the back of the church.

Volunteers Needed

Do you enjoy holding babies? Our Nursery is growing and we need volunteers downstairs to help with the babies one Sunday a month. Please speak to Grace Karram Stephenson for further information.

Tuesday Mornings in the Church Garden

On Tuesdays from 10 a.m. -12 p.m. you are invited to help care for our church garden. No experience or tools are needed. Please speak to Ingrid Whitaker or Patty McKnight for more information.

Thy Kingdom Come

Take part in the world-wide wave of prayer, known as Thy Kingdom Come, from May 30 - June 9. Join Bp. Anderson for an informal worship service to celebrate this global initiative on Friday, June 7, 7-9 p.m. at Christ the King.

THE READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Day of Pentecost

ACTS 2:1-21 ; PSALM 104:25-35, 37B
ROMANS 8:14-17 ; JOHN 14:8-17 (25-27)

Prayer over the Gifts

Source of all joy, receive our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, Keep us in the love of Christ and bring us to the vision of his glory; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Eternal God, may we who share Christ's banquet be one with him as he is one with you. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, the risen and ascended Lord. Amen.

Announcements

FaithWorks Walkathon today after the 11 a.m service

The money we raise from our annual walkathon helps to support FaithWorks Ministry Partners who provide help and hope to thousands of individuals and families across the GTA and beyond. After a pizza lunch at the church, we will go by TTC to catch the Toronto Island Ferry (tickets are available on-line). On our Island walk, we will stop at St. Andrew by-the-Lake for Evensong and a picnic (please bring a light picnic to eat and/or share). We will return home via the Ward's Island ferry. Please speak to Judith Kidd for more information.

Parish Retreat at Camp Nokomis

All ages are welcome at St. Martin's parish retreat at Camp Nokomis, Bellwood Lake next Friday and Saturday, June 7-8. The speakers will be Monica and Matthew Green (former St. Martin's parishioners now living in the U.S.). Please see Jay Haddad at the Coffee Hour to register.

Petals for Pikangikum

Today is the last day to buy geraniums at $5 each. The proceeds will go to support the water project in the First Nations village of Pikangikum in north-west Ontario. You might also like to donate the geraniums that you buy to the church garden so that we can have a wonderful display of colour this summer.

Welcome

We welcome back Rob Hamilton who will be assisting with the music program of the parish for the next ten weeks. Rob has just completed his music degree at McGill and will be pursuing further studies in music this fall.

Mums & Tots Pickleball

Join us this Thursday from 9:30—11:30 a.m. in the Parish Hall for the final session of Mums & Tots Pickleball for this season. Child care is provided.

Quiet Garden

A Quiet Garden will be held at the home of Lynn McKnight & Michael Attwood on Saturday, June 15 from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Our Assistant Curate, the Rev'd Alison Hari-Singh, will be leading the day. The suggested donation is $10. Registration forms are available at the back of the church.

The Collect

Almighty God, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven. Mercifully give us faith to know that, as he promised, he abides with us on earth to the end of time; who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Acts

One day, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling. While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, "These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation." She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour. But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, "These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe." The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks. About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were unfastened. When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul shouted in a loud voice, “Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.” The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. Then he brought them outside and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” They answered, “Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.” They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

A Reading from the Revelation to John

“See, I am coming soon; my reward is with me, to repay according to everyone’s work. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.” Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates. “It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.” The Spirit and the bride say, “Come.” And let everyone who hears say, “Come.” And let everyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift. The one who testifies to these things says, “Surely I am coming soon.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.

Revelation 22:12-14,16-17,20-21

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Jesus said, “I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me. I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.”
