(pattymcknight@sympatico.ca) as well as Fr. Philip and the Rev'd Alison Hari-Sing will be attending. They also attended the pre-Synod meeting for the York-Credit Valley Episcopal Area on October 23rd. The theme for this Synod is: Created and Recreated in Christ. You can find more information about the 2019 Synod including a detailed agenda in the Convening Circular on the Diocesan web site. To locate this information go to www.toronto.anglican.ca and click on 2019 Regular Synod and then on Convening Circular.

Eyeglasses

A box is available at the back of the church to receive your donations of eyeglasses or prescription sunglasses. They will be distributed through the Lions Club network to those in need elsewhere in the world.

Trinity College Book Sale

The largest and best book sale on the U of T St. George Campus continues today and tomorrow. A wide selection of books in all categories both fiction and non-fiction will be available. The sale takes place at Trinity College (6 Hoskin Avenue).

Better Sight and Sound

Large print editions of the bulletin & hymn book are available from the sidespeople as well as ear pieces that provide enhanced hearing.

Parish 2020 Calendars

We will be selling 2020 parish calendars again this year featuring photographs of St. Martin's garden and church throughout the year. They will be available later this fall.

Thank you

The Garden Committee thanks all who those donated bulbs for the church garden. They will make a very colourful display next spring.

Order of St. Martin

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received. 1 Peter 4:10

Our Patronal Festival on November 10th will mark the nineteenth year that we have recognized individual parishioners with the Order of St. Martin. As the citation states, this award celebrates and honours those members of our parish family through whose life, example, and personal ministry we see the light of Christ. Please take time to reflect on those people who have touched your life and the lives of others, and brought you closer to our Lord Jesus Christ. Nomination forms are available at the back of the church. Nominations must be received by today, Sunday, October 27th.

Please join us in the Parish Hall after the service for refreshments and the Parish Ministries Fair.

Announcements

Annual Stewardship Campaign

St. Martin's annual Stewardship campaign is now underway. Join us downstairs today after the 11 o'clock service for the annual Parish Ministries Fair where you can find out about all of the groups and activities which make St. Martin's tick. If you didn't pick up your Stewardship package last Sunday, please do so today. Extra copies are also available at the back of the church. Please put your completed Pledge and Time & Talent form in the return envelope and put it on the collection plate or mail it to the church. You can also submit your form confidentially online by going to www.stmartininthefields.ca and following the link in the upper right hand corner of the home page. Please submit your completed pledge and time and talent form by November 24th, Commitment Sunday. Thank you.

All Souls

All Souls Day is next Saturday, November 2. There will be a celebration of the Eucharist in the Chapel at 10 a.m. To have individuals remembered in the prayers at this service, please print their names in the binder available at the back of the church.

Arthur Brown/Basil Tonks Annual Dinner

This annual dinner to support the ministry of the Anglican Church in the West Indies will take place at St. Andrew's, Scarborough (2333 Victoria Park Ave.) next Saturday, November 2. The evening begins with a celebration of the Eucharist at 5 p.m. followed by dinner at 6:30 p.m. Bishop Andrew Asbil will be the guest of honour. Fr. Philip has tickets available.

Frozen Entrees at the Nutcracker Fair

The flowers at the altar are given to the glory of God in memory of my husband, Ron, remembered in love forever by Barbara Urquhart.

The Collect

Lord God our redeemer, who heard the cry of your people and sent your servant Moses to lead them out of slavery, free us from the tyranny of sin and death, and by the leading of your Spirit bring us to our promised land; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Joel

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame. Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit. I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the Lord has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the Lord calls.

Joel 2:23-32 3

Psalm 65.8-14

- 8 Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your marvellous signs; *
you make the dawn and the dusk to sing for joy.
- 9 You visit the earth and water it abundantly;
you make it very plenteous; *
the river of God is full of water.
- 10 You prepare the grain, *
for so you provide for the earth.
- 11 You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; *
with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.
- 12 You crown the year with your goodness, *
and your paths overflow with plenty.
- 13 May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, *
and the hills be clothed with joy.
- 14 May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,
and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; *
let them shout for joy and sing.

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18 4

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Luke 18:9-14

Prayer over the Gifts

God of constant love, you have guided your people in all times and ages. May we who offer you our praise today always be ready to follow where you lead; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

God our guide, you have fed us with bread from heaven as you fed the people of Israel. May we who have been inwardly nourished be ready to follow you all our days; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
