Introit Hymn #60 (Blue Book)

Land of Rest

The Gathering of the Community (Green Book)

p. 185

Glory to God

p. 186

The Collect

O God, your Son Jesus Christ has left to us this meal of bread and wine in which we share his body and his blood. May we who celebrate this sign of his great love show in our lives the fruits of his redemption; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Deuteronomy 8:2-3

Remember the long way that the Lord your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commandments. He humbled you by letting you hunger, then by feeding you with manna, with which neither you nor your ancestors were acquainted, in order to make you understand that one does not live by bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord.

Reader            The Word of the Lord.
People            Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-8

Tone 8.2

1. I will bless the Lord at all times;*
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
2. I will glory in the Lord;*
let the humble hear and rejoice.
3. Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord;*
let us exalt his name together.
4. I sought the Lord, and he answered me*
and delivered me out of all my terror.
5. Look upon him and be radiant,*
and let not your faces be ashamed.
6. I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me*
and saved me from all my troubles.
7. The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him,*
and he will deliver them.
8. Taste and see that the Lord is good;*
happy are they who trust in him!

The Epistle

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Reader            The Word of the Lord.

People            Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia. You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature. Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon            The Lord be with you.

People            And also with you.

Deacon            The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John.

People            Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

[The crowd in the synagogue said to Jesus:] Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat." "Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." "Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh." The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever." This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever." He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum. When many of his disciples heard it, they said, "This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?" John 6:31-35, 41-60

The Scottish Episcopal Church is an ecclesiastical province of the Anglican communion with origins tracing back to the 5th century saint Ninian, who conducted the first Christian mission to what is now southern Scotland. It became a distinct church in 1582, with seven dioceses and approximately 23,000 members.
